

LOGISTICS FOR BUILDING MATERIALS

Alongside terminal operations for the transshipment and storage of building materials at sea and inland ports as well as taking delivery at production sites, Rhenus performs a wide variety of sales preparation services via its network of branches and partners in the UK, France, Switzerland, Belgium, the Netherlands, Scandinavia, Austria, Poland, Romania and Bulgaria. Building materials are then delivered to the client following interim storage and stock-keeping.

Services

- National and international transport by sea, inland waterways, rail and lorry
- Acceptance of raw materials at the production location
- Terminal operations for handling building materials
- Storage at sea and inland ports, including video surveillance
- Screening, fractionating, labelling, picking, bagging, palletising, etc
- Quality and quantity control
- Distribution of finished products on import and export markets on demand
- Direct transfer to client's mixing equipment
- Lorry delivery free site

IT services

- Individual IT solutions
- Inventory control systems including expediting service

