

LOGISTICS FOR STEEL, METAL AND SCRAP

Rhenus is a specialist when it comes to the logistics of steel, metal (ferrous and non-ferrous) and scrap. We organise transport, including in intermodal transport chains if required, from production to the final recipient – anywhere in the world! We also provide tailored logistics solutions 'made by Rhenus Logistics' for your products and markets.

Services

- National and international transport by inland waterways, coastal shipping and sea as well as rail and lorry
- Terminal operations at sea and inland ports
- Stevedoring on board
- Transshipment, storage, distribution, picking, clearance
- Packing, repacking
- Quality and quantity control
- In time' delivery
- Organisation and dispatch of complete trains
- Container handling, unloading and seaworthy stevedoring of all steel products and goods
- Disposal of scrap

Facilities

- Special equipment for handling, storage and transport

Cooperation

- Co-operation with international haulage contractors, rail and shipping companies, and transshipment operations (Antwerp)

IT services

- Individual IT services
- Electronic data exchange with plants and recipients
- Networking of data-processing systems