

FULL SERVICE

for the pharmaceutical industry

Rhenus covers the entire supply chain for businesses in the pharmaceutical industry. We can handle logistics services in facilities in accordance with GXP and FDA standards. There we can store raw materials and finished goods either refrigerated or at normal temperatures depending on requirements. We possess a wholesale permit in accordance with the Medicinal Products act as well as a manufacturing license for working on the secondary packaging of finished goods.

Supply Logistics & Raw Materials Storage

- Directing global goods streams of raw materials, chemical agents and excipients as well as packaging materials
- Inbound controls, sampling
- Storage close to production
- Consignation warehouse

Production

- Production-synchronized delivery with transport management
- Delivery to place of consumption
- Distribution from production site
- Kanban control
- Transport of bulk goods
- Transport of finished medicines to the distribution warehouse

IT-Services

- Validated system
- Highly modern own warehouse management system
- Flexible interface configuration

Sales & Marketing

- Picking of samples for medical practitioners
- Promotional goods logistics
- Documentation
- Supply of field offices
- Warehousing and distribution of pressure pieces
- Red Hand Day campaigns
- Confectioning of kits and displays

Distribution

- Co-Packing, Re-Packing, Order Picking
- Picking
- Packing
- National distribution to clinics, wholesalers and pharmacies
- B2C handling for mail order pharmacies
- Export handling
- Freight cost optimised shipping national and international
- Customs clearance and documentation
- Temperature-controlled transport
- Transports in accordance with GDP
- Air and sea freight
- Road transport
- Batch tracking / Best-before date tracking
- FEFO

Goods Warehouse

- Sampling
- Storage in various temperature zones
- Storage under GMP/GSP requirements
- Storage under FDA requirements
- Quarantine storage

